CODE OF ETHICS

CIREIA members acknowledge that our association is an organization of people whose purpose is to promote our collective real estate investing success through education, networking and community service. In order to pursue these ends in a legal and ethical manner, all CIREIA members will be held to the highest standard of professionalism and integrity. This includes, but is not limited to the following:

Members will keep themselves informed of local, state and federal laws and other matters affecting housing in their community.

Members will not discriminate against any person for reasons of race, age, religion, creed, sex, country of national origin, children, marital status or disability.

Members will acknowledge that a real estate investing business, when conducted properly, helps to return real property to its highest and best use, which ultimately leads to higher property values for our community.

Members will comply with all relevant public policies governing the health, safety and welfare of consumers; and protect them by using quality materials, workmanship and construction practices.

Members will provide safe sanitary housing within the limits and guidelines of the laws.

Members will act as a positive role model for the professions of real estate investing and housing providers when dealing with buyers, sellers, tenants, the public, the media, government officials and others.

Members will not perform or cause to be performed any act which would tend to reflect on or bring CIREIA into disrepute.

Members will not misrepresent any material facts in their business dealings and will not cheat, take advantage of, or malign other members, property owners or residents.

Members will not engage in or tolerate other members engaging in illegal practices of any nature. Members will not cheat, wrong, or defraud any other member, owner, or resident.

Members will always conduct themselves in a professional manner at CIREIA events, when representing CIREIA and in all business dealings. This includes approaching members with conflicts in a reasonable manner and asking for assistance if needed.

OTHER NOTES:

Procedure: Once payment is made and application is received, a background check is performed; then application is approved by Board of Directors. Should you not be approved, your payment is refunded.
